Numb. 1701

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2. 1740

No. 1700.

A L. (referr'd to in our Paper of Yesterday) Letter from the Count de Torring, the Elector of Bavaria's Chief Minister, to the Count de Perouse at Vienna.

SINCE the Lord has dispos'd of his Imperial and Catholick Majesty, 'tis his Electoral Highness's Pleasure that your Excellency should go to all the Ministers of the Conference, and declare to them in his Name, That he hopes they will not be hasty in taking any Step in Favour of any Successor, before they have maturely considered the Dispositions of his Imperial Majesty's Ancestors, particularly that of the Emperor Ferdinand I. who fix'd the Order of the Succession in his Posterity among Females as well as the Males: That by virtue of this Disposition the Eldest Daughter of the said Emperor and her Descendants, were immediately to succeed, upon Failure of Males of the Austrian Family; that this being now the Case, his Electoral Highness of Bavaria claims his Right; and as he desires nothing but what in Justice belongs to him, he demands a Sight both of the Will and Codicil of the Emperor Ferdinand the I. which can't surely be deny'd him, as they are common Instruments.

Munich, Oct. 21. 1740.

N. B. The Extracts from the Will and Codicil of Ferdinand I. will be inserted the first Opportunity.

Yesterday arriv'd one of the Mails due from Holland.

Vienna, Nov. 23. N. S.

THE Velt Marshal de Seckendorf, who arriv'd here last Week, has been graciously receiv'd both by the Queen and by the Great Duke of Tuscany, to whom the latter said to him, 'that he was rejoyc'd to see him again, and that if it had been in his Power he should have had his Liberty long before.' He is now gone to his Estate in Saxony, and from thence he will repair to his Government of Philipsburg. The General de Neuperg, who is also arriv'd from Glatz in Bohemia, as the other is from Gratz in Styria, has likewise been receiv'd with great Marks of Esteem both by the Queen and Duke. Yesterday her Majesty received the Homage of the States of Austria, who were entertain'd at 19 Tables in the Apartments of the Castle; and Medals were given upon the Occasion, as also Money distributed to the Populace, representing on one side a Lion crown'd, with the Motto Justitia & Clementia; and on the Reverse, the Queen's Titles and the Date of the Homage. The Populace had also Plenty of Provisions set out for 'em, and several Fountains run both of Red and White Wine; but by eight o' Clock at Night they were so heated with the Liquor and seditious Language, that they went raving mad to the Houses of the Lieutenant Governor of this City, and one of the Referendaries of the Court, threw Stones at the Windows, and would have forc'd open the Doors of the latter if it had not been for some Companies of Dragoons that came and dispersed them.

IRELAND.

Dublin, Nov. 22. The Panther, a 60 Gun Ship, and the Salisbury, a 50 Gun Ship, are arrived at Cork to oblige the French Ships to obey the Embargo; so that there are now five Men of War cruising on that Coast, viz. one of 60, two of 50, and two of 20 Guns each.

By Letters from Youghal and Dungarvan we are assured, that some Merchants of this City having given Orders to ship Corn from thence to this Port, the Mob rose by Beat of Drum, and declar'd that they would burn the Ship, and murder any one that should attempt to put any Corn on board.

A few Days ago dy'd here Mr. Wm. Espinas, a very wealthy Brewer of this City, whose Death is exceedingly lamented by reason of his universal good Character.

On the 30th ult. dy'd Arthur Tucker, Esq; who has left an Estate of 2000 l. a Year to John Long Bateman, Esq; besides a considerable personal Estate.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, Nov. 25. The late Storm has done incredible Damage; amongst other Losses, a Montrose Ship, one Mill, Master, is wreck'd; they were in the utmost Distress, having lost all their Masts and Rigging, and with the greatest Difficulty, after having fired several Guns, a Boat reached them from Lestock, which happily preserved the Lives of the whole Crew. It was lucky that the Vessel had nothing but Ballast aboard, having delivered a Cargo of Tobacco at London. The Mate, whose Name is Pearson, is returned to this Place aboard of Mr. Steil.

A Whale, 56 Foot long, having Sunday last run ashore in the River Tay, was surrounded and killed by the Country People.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Bath, Nov. 26. This Morning a dreadful Fire happen'd in the House of Mr. Frankpit, at the Cully-flower in King's-mead Street, which consumed that and three adjoining Houses. Mr. Frankpit had a Boy in his Arms, whom he was bringing thro' the House into the Street, but the Flames were so excessive, that he was oblig'd to drop him, tho' he was his own Son, to save himself, and the Child was burnt to Death; the Father is also so much burnt, that his Life is despair'd of. None of his Goods were sav'd. The Generous Mr. Nash has taken it upon him to make a charitable Collection among the Nobility, Gentry, &c. for the Distressed.

Reading, Nov. 27. Yesterday came on the Election of a Burgess for this Borough in the Room of Henry Grey, Esq. deceased; the Candidates were John Dodd of Swallowfield Place, near this Town, and William Strode of Hertfordshire, Esq; after a very hard Struggle and many Objections to the present Rates on account of their Partiality, Mr. Iremonger the Mayor was pleased to declare that Mr. Strode was duly elected.

LONDON.

Some Letters from Vienna hint as if the Queen of Hungary and Bohemia had Thoughts of yielding the Crown of Bohemia to the Great Duke of Tuscany, to enable him to be an Elector as well as a Competitor for the Imperial Dignity.

We hear that the Count d'Ostein, Envoy Extraordinary from the Court of Vienna to Great Britain, is come over hither with the young Count de Harrach, Son to the Prime Minister of the Governess of the Austrian Netherlands.

They write from Idstein, that the Princess of Nassau-Usingen dy'd there the 15th ult. of an Apoplexy, to the great Regret of the Prince her Husband and the whole Court.

The Dutch East India Company have appointed Mr. Gustavus William d'Imhoff, Governor General of their Dominions in that Country.

Tho' the King of Spain is said to be better, yet they write from Paris, that he still keeps his Chamber, and is constantly attended by the Queen, who suffers none to come near him but his Confessor, the Marquis de Villarias his Secretary of State, and the Count de Mark, the French Ambassador.

Letters of the first ult. from Petersbourg say, that the Duke of Brunswick Lunenbourg, has resign'd all his Military Posts, that he may have more Leisure to attend the Education of his Son, the young Czar: tho' some say he does not think it comports with him to serve under any other General; and that some Russian Lords having waited with their Compliments on the Duke of Courland the Regent, he told them, 'that it was 'neither to please nor to serve himself that he had taken 'the Burden of the Regency upon him, but only at 'the pressing Instances and Orders of the late Czarina, 'to whom he had infinite Obligations: That they 'might be sure of his Fidelity and Care in the Administration of Affairs; that he with'd for nothing more 'than

'than to render every Subject happy and flouriſhing, 'as well as the Empire; that he would perform ſtrict 'Juſtice to every body, without reſpect of Perſons; 'and that he would look upon the Ruſſian Nobility as 'his own Brothers, &c. Mean time, tho' 'tis ſaid his Adminiſtration hitherto gives very great Content, and that he has preferr'd ſome Ruſſians to be Major-generals of his Forces, and declar'd Major-general Butterlin a Lieutenant-general, yet there are Advices from Petersburg by the Way of Hamburg, that the chief Director of the Cuſtoms, and two other Ruſſians of Quality, have been arreſted, together with ſeveral others of inferior Rank, for indecent Reflections.

The Letters from Vienna obſerve, that before the Bavarian Miniſter ſet out for Munich, he demanded a Sight of the Original Marriage Contract of Albert V. Duke of Bavaria, to the Archduchess Anne; but whether he obtain'd it is not ſaid.

Thoſe of the 21ſt ult. from Hanover ſay they have certain Advice, that the King of Pruſſia has 20,000 Men in a Readineſs to act in favour of the Queen of Hungary, wherever her Majeſty has a mind to employ them: And there's a Report, that ſome Pruſſian Regiments both Horſe and Foot are already among the Auſtrian Troops that are to form a Camp near Pilſen in Bohemia. Nevertheleſs, according to all Advices, there's greater Hopes of an Union among the Princes of the Empire than was expected.

The Francis Clark, from St. Kitts for London, was taken in Lat. 38, the 15th Sept. 44 deg. W. from the Lizard, by a Spaniſh Ship from the Havanah, and carried into Ferrol, where the Captain was Oct. 6.

The Plymouth, Olive, from Newfoundland for Portugal with 2500 Quintals of Fiſh, as mention'd in one of our former, was taken by a Spaniſh Privateer and carried into Lisbon the 6th of November laſt.

Yeſterday dy'd of a Fever, at his Houſe in Thames-ſtreet, Mr. Hodges, an eminent Dyer and Deputy of Dowgate Ward.

Laſt Saturday died in an advanced Age at Harrow on the Hill, William Bainbrig, Eſq; formerly Secretary to the Commiſſioners of Taxes.

Yeſterday Morning died in the 42d Year of his Age, in Taviſtock-ſtreet, Gilbert Langdale, Eſq; a Gentleman of 400l. per annum, which he has left to charitable Uſes.

Richard Liſter, Eſq; Member in the laſt Parliament for Shrewsbury, is elected Knight of the Shire for the County of Salop, in the room of Corbet Kynaſton, Eſq; deceaſed.

As is George Prowſe, Eſq; for the County of Somerſet, in the room of Sir William Wyndham, Bart. deceaſed.

As is alſo John Smelt, Eſq; for the Borough of Northalerton, in the room of his Brother Leonard Smelt, Eſq; deceaſed.

—— Young, Eſq; is elected Member for the Borough of Steyning in Suſſex, in the room of Sir Robert Fagg, Bart. deceaſed.

And —— Moore, Eſq; for the Borough of Banbury, in the room of the Lord Viſcount Wallingford, deceaſed.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint Thomas Morris, Eſq; to be Adjutant-General in Lieutenant-General Tyrrell's Regiment of Foot.

Likewiſe to appoint James Ereskine, Eſq; to be a Lieutenant in the Royal Regiment of Scotch Dragoons.

NOTICE is given,

From the oldeſt Regiſter-Office, appointed for dividing Tickets into Shares, which is now ſituated directly behind the King on Horſeback at Charing-Croſs, and kept By Mr. FRANCIS WILSON,

THAT Tickets are there ſold on the moſt reaſonable Conditions, and divided into Shares of all Sorts, (in 500 different ones if requir'd) after a Method very advantageous to the Purchaſers, as by it Adventurers are equally ſecure, and cannot well fail of Four or more Prizes, for a little more than the Value of a whole Ticket. Notwithſtanding the great Expence and Care taken to render his Regiſter the moſt correct (by having two Clerks at the Place of drawing) Adventurers may there enter the Numbers of their Tickets at Six-pence each, and have the earlieſt Accounts of the Succeſs or Loſs ſent them to any Part of the World. It is well known he has hitherto in all former Lotteries been fortunate enough to diſpoſe of, or ſhare perhaps more large Prizes, than all the publick Offices put together.

P. S. To prevent Impoſitions of all Kinds, Tickets ſold at my Office are endors'd on the Back ſide with my own Hand, and all Liſts of Tickets examin'd there will be ſign'd
